

Falling again

Adam Alvermark / Linus Ohlsson

I'm looking at the pieces
Of what used to be
Me so insecure
Is this imagination
Better take it slow
How far should I go

I never thought I'd do this
To myself again
But then I'd never know
All the questions asked
What is right or wrong
For me

I'm falling again
just like a star
I'm falling again
You hold the key to my heart
I wanna be by your side
I'm falling again
just like a dream
I'm falling again
I know how crazy this might seem
But for the first time I'm alive
Falling again!

I'm looking at the pieces
Of what used to be
Me all alone
I know now what it felt like
I had given up
The things that made me smile

You made my life a reason for me to live
I'll never let you go
So you walked my way

And you're here to stay with me

I'm falling again
just like a star
I'm falling again
You hold the key to my heart
I wanna be by your side
I'm falling again
just like a dream
I'm falling again
I know how crazy this might seem
But for the first time I'm alive

I'm falling again
just like a dream
I'm falling again
I know how crazy this might seem
But for the first time I'm alive
Falling again
Falling again
