

LOVE TRAP

Astaire

The First step of affection
Is a stare in my direction
With your infatuation
You get a love attack
The art of my illusion
Lies in changing your conclusion
Which forces an intrusion
It's the love impact

*And still they keep returning
Will they ever learn they just can't wait and that's a fact
And still they keep forgetting
And they always end regretting*

Cause baby it's a Love trap - Love trap
Once you go there's no turning back
Love Trap - Love Trap
I've got you in my spelling net strap
Love trap Love trap
There's no escape - there's no turning back
Love Trap - Love trap
You're suffering from my attack

My present situation
Gives all sophistication and gives me the precision
To dictate to you
So don't you try resisting
Or I will start insisting
And you will find the power
I have over you

And still they keep returning.....
Cause baby it's a Love Trap Love Trap.....
